

MISSION

Spread internationally the independent arts and the collective creation through the constructive interactions between artists, curators, educators, students and visitors of the on-line museum.

VISION

To be the most visited on-line Interactive Museum and Audio-visual Data Base of Independent Arts. To create the first collaborative on line documentary about independent arts. To innovate and to educate on the communication and interactive audiovisual creations experimentations. This will be improved using a collective edition system online that it will be divulged internationally in centers of art and education.

VALUES

Multiculturalism, Participation and Cultural Democratization, Respect and Recognition, Diversity, Unity, Creativity and Universal Communication, Tolerance, Generosity, Empathy, Solidarity and Gratefulness.

OBJECTIVES

1. To expand internationally the independent arts and the cultural diversity by Internet.
2. To create a dialogue between artists, curators, educators, students and visitors.
3. To explore the audiovisual collective creations in Internet based on constructive interactions.
4. To generate collective an online audiovisual edition tool for educative centers at an international level.
5. To create new entertain and educative markets focus in the art's creation, diffusion and investment.